The 56th Annual 24th IDA Reunion has come and gone and what a reunion it was. It wasn't especially large as was many of the reunions of the past but we had a great time.

Eight bus tours were offered which gave the members and families a wide sampling of Southern Arizona's scenic treasures.

The Friday evening Aloha Banquet included dancing to the rhythms of Rich Stanley and just having a lighthearted, good time.

The next morning brought much activity beginning with the Unit Breakfast. These were well attended but not nearly as well as the Ladies' Breakfast which was made complete with gifts of cosmetic samples and demonstration of use. It was conducted by a beauty products sales representative from Phoenix.

The reunion was joined by representatives and a display by the Arizona Purple Heart Chapter. A delegation from the Pentagon also joined us, in hopes of gleaning information concerning MIAs mostly from the Korean War.

The Saturday Membership Meeting resulted in the election of three new officers: Wes Morrison as President, Donald Lloyd as Vice President, and Norm Dixon as Secretary/Treasurer.

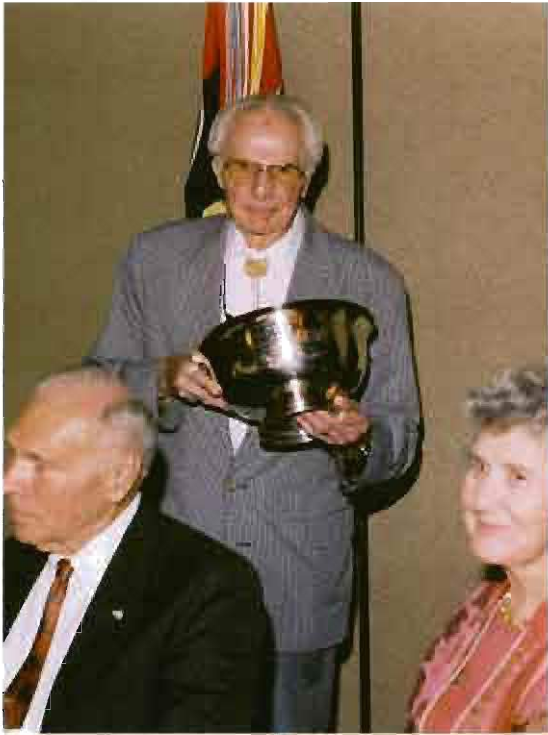

It all came to a solemn and reflective climax with the posting of the colors and the lighting of the candles followed by a stirring talk by General Vaught.

Sincerely,

Norm Dixon
